SACRAMENTO

Sacramento city, the county seat of Sacramento county, and the capital of the State, is situated on the east bank of the Sacramento river immediately south of its confluence with the American river, in the heart of the richest agricultural section of California. It was settled in 1840 by Capt. John A. Sutter, who there established Sutter's Fort which is now an eastern portion of the city. Sacramento has 55 trains daily entering, and is on the line of the California and Oregon, Western Pacific, Central Pacific, California Pacific and Sacramento and Placerville Railroads. All of these roads are of the Southern Pacific system, the shops of which are located in the city and now furnish employment to 2,500 men; the monthly payroll amounts to over $145,000, and every thing used in connection with the railroad, from a locomotive to a spike is made here. A line of steamers runs to San Francisco on the Sacramento river and the bays, and another as far up the river as Red Bluff. In the Capitol park are also the Exposition Pavilion of the State Agricultural Society and the state printing office in which are printed, in addition to the state work, the text books for the use in the public schools. The State Agricultural Society has also an extensive park for the exhibition of stock and one of the finest race tracks on the Pacific Coast. The state fairs are annually held in September. The city has flouring mills, planing mills, box factories, broom factories, cannery, wineries, foundries, etc. The distance by rail from San Francisco 90 miles and by boat 125 miles. Population 35,000.

WOODLAND

Yolo county; a post, express and telegraph town; it is the county seat, 22 miles from Sacramento, having a population of nearly 6,000. The streets are generally well shaded by nearly every variety of shade trees of uniform growths; are wide and smooth, and run at right angles. The business and public buildings will compare favorably with those places whose pretensions are much greater. The town's support is derived from the agricultural interest, whose yearly exportation of enormous amounts of grain, vegetables and fruit, is sufficient to warrant its permanency as one of the important places of the State. The water is good, and the health splendid.

—Ask for them at Hardware and Rubber Goods Stores.—

ADDRESS: WILLIAM WAINWRIGHT, FACTORY 105 BEALE ST.. 3rd Floor, San Francisco.
 POST OFFICE ADDRESS, 1409 JACKSON ST.. S. F., CAL:

Wainwright's Telegraph Spray Nozzle, Wainwright's Eureka Spray Nozzle.

GARDEN AND TREE SPRINKLER.

No Bursting of Hose with this Sprinkler.

These Sprinklers are used in Golden Gate Park and most of the Cemeteries of this city, Oakland and other parts of the State. They make a solid stream or spray of any fineness by turning the screw or pressing the thumb down on the lever, as seen in the cut.

Cut represents solid stream

SOLID STREAM

FINE SPRAY

These cuts show a spray and solid stream with the same sprinkler.

This Sprinkler throws every degree of stream from a fog or misty spray to a solid stream, by a movement of the stop-cock. They are made to fit $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{3}{4}$ or 1 inch hose pipes.

Either of these Nozzles, sent by Mail, Nickel Plated for $1.

WAINWRIGHT'S CALIFORNIA LAWN IRRIGATOR.

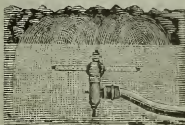

THEY ARE ALL CAST BRASS.

This cut shows the Adjustable Lawn Irrigator, and the internal construction of one the arms.

WAINWRIGHT'S SPRAY PUMPS

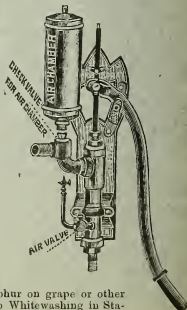

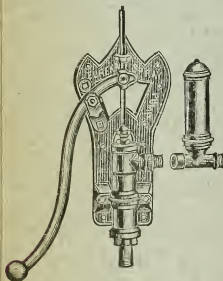

—AND—

Tree Spraying Apparatus.

Factory, 105 BEALE STREET, 3d floor, San Francisco.
Post Office Address, 1409 Jackson Street, S. F. Cal.

WAINWRIGHT'S Combined Air and Liquid Spray Pumps.

THESE PUMPS AND SPRAYING APPARATUS are constructed upon an entirely new principle, and are the inventions of William Wainwright, of San Francisco who has devoted over three years in study towards perfecting spraying machinery. The improvement consists of the employment of an extra inlet for the admission of air into the body of the pump and from there into the air chamber. The advantage these pumps have over others—as both air and liquid can be pumped by the same pump at the same time. By continuous pumping, 2 to 4 streams may be taken from the same pump at one time. They can be used for testing water or gas pipes, or steam boilers (when there is a steam-gauge used), also for cleaning sinks or drains, washing windows, wagons, carriages, and extinguishing fires, etc.

These Pumps will throw Whitewash and Sulphur on grape or other vines, when used with a suitable nozzle; also, do Whitewashing in Stables, Barns, Chicken-houses, on Fences, etc.

IMPROVED BELT FRUE ORE CONCENTRATOR.

PRICE OF FRUE VANNER with plain 4 foot Belt. $575 00 F O B.
 PRICE OF FRUE VANNER with patent improved Belt. $900.00 F O B.

Our Patent Improved Belt Frue Vanner has double the capacity of the plain belt machine. It is in use and giving entire satisfaction in a number of mills, the most notable of which is the Alaska M. & M. Co's Mill, Douglas Island, where 24 improved belt machines treat the pulp from 120 stamps, crushing 350 tons of ore per day, as against 48 plain belt machines taking the pulp from the other 120 stamps.

Over 2200 Plain Belt Machines are now in use. Saves from forty to one hundred per cent. more than any other Concentrator. The wear and tear are merely nominal. Concentrations are clean from the first working. A machine can be seen in working order by application at office. Protected by patents December 22, 1874; September 2, 1879; April 27, 1880; March 22, 1881, February 20, 1883; September 18, 1883; July 24, 1888. Patents applied for.

miles from

Santa Clara county—A post express, telegraph and banking town; thirty-one miles south of San Jose and eighty-one miles from San Francisco; on the line of the Southern Pacific Railroad, at the junction of the Hollister and Tres Pinos division. It is a town of 2,000 inhabitants, and historically deserves considerable prominence, as the man after whom it is named was one of the first white settlers in the State, having deserted from a British ship at Monterey, in 1813. His name was John Cameron, but he changed it to Gilroy, his mother's maiden name, located at this place, married lived and died here. Gilroy is supported by about four hundred square miles of territory, much of which is unexcelled fruit and vine land.

LIVERMORE

Alameda county; this place has long been the principal town in the county outside of Oakland. In case a division of the County should occur, for which a bill is now pending in the Legislature, this would no doubt be the county seat. The town is situated in Livermore valley, forty-eight miles from San Francisco on the Southern Pacific Company's system. Farming is the chief industry, but some of the best vineyards in the State are near here. The population is now about 2,500 and is rapidly increasing.

All tourists and travelers consider it one of the most charming spots in all California, If not in the world. It is situated at the mouth of the San Lorenzo River and has an business portion of the town lies in a basin completely shut in by the bluffs and surrounding hills, fully sheltered from the ocean breezes and the "northers."

Santa Cruz has a municipal government, fire department, and all the various secret and benevolent institutions of other places, graded schools, and elegant and spacious school-houses.
It supports two daily and two weekly newspapers, the Daily Surf and the Daily Sentinel, the latter being first established in 1855. The city contains many pretty homes, embossed in foliage and flowers. The main streets are lined with shops and business houses; diverge but a short distance on either hand, and you are at once amid rural surroundings.

SAN JOSE

San Jose, "The Garden City" as it is familiarly known is the county seat and the principal city of Santa Clara County. With its suburbs it numbers 25,000 inhabitants—Centrally located and only fifty miles from San Francisco, with which it is connected by three lines of railroads and a dozen daily trains, its importance as one of the principal cities of California is apparent; and because of its wealth and productive surroundings, its influence upon the commerce of the state and the fruit market of the east is by no means unimportant.

A Modern City—San Jose is essentially a modern city covering an area of seven and one-half sq miles, with broad streets, sidewalks of concrete and asphaltum, fine business buildings, magnificent residences and neat cottages. There are several lines of horse-cars connecting the city with Santa Clara—Gas and electricty furnishes light.

Markets—The markets of San Jose are complete enough for the most fastidious epicure, and contains "flesh, fish and fowl," the greatest variety of the finest fruits and the choicest vegetables that grow. In fact, there are only two things that can prevent a person from living well in San Jose a lack of appetite or lack of coin.

Manufactures—San Jose is not a prominent manufacturing town, and aside from the fruit packing and canning establishment never will be, not, at least until electricity has solved the problem of cheap motors,

The population is not numerous enough to support extensive manufactures, hence it is obvious that those who get their raw material at home, meet with the most success. In this category are: Fruit canneries, San Jose woolen mills, tanneries, foundries, breweries, box factories Pacific Silk Factory, etc.

News papers—No city on the Pacific Coast, similar in size and importance, has better news papers than San Jose There are four daily papers, two of them publishing a weekly edition, a weekly German paper and a monthly devoted to horticulture and viticulture. The last but not least, the "Tropical Talker" published weekly by Mayor Geo W Calderwood, devoted to literary, fame and topics of the day.
